UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

The Midweek

Wednesday, February 21 2018

From the desk of our Pastors . . .

I find a lot of comfort in praying. I hope you do as well. As long as I am praying, I don't feel stressed, worried or anxious. However, it does not take long after I stop praying for those negative emotions to come back into my mind. It's especially prevalent when I'm trying to sleep and my brain starts going in a million different directions. I find myself all too often tossing and turning for the rest of the night.

Then someone gave me a new magnet for my collection. It says, "Give it to God and then go to sleep. God already has a solution." Those are such simple words and yet so true. Even when we are not praying in the moment, we can be assured that God is at work on all we have prayed about.

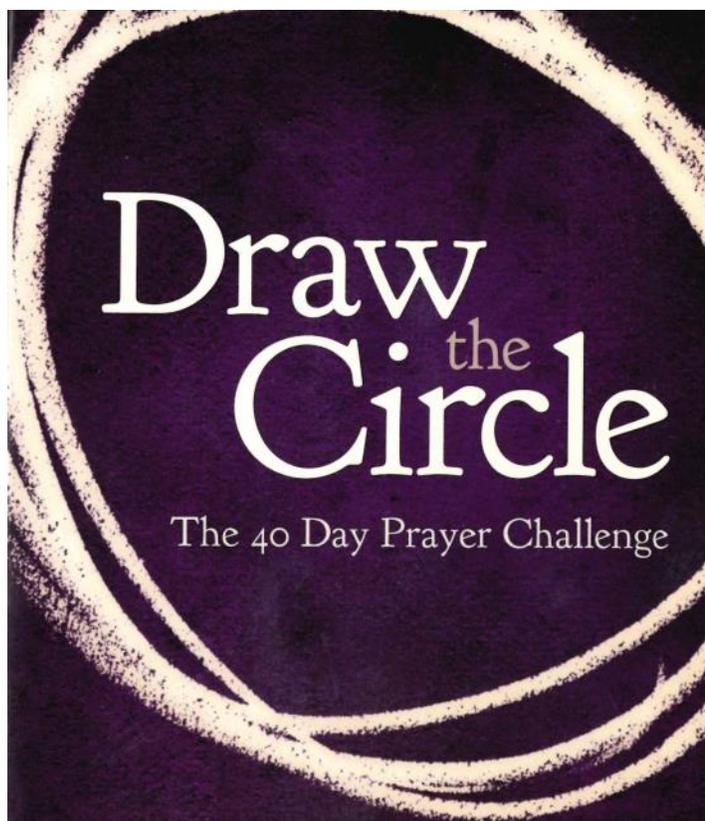

Philippians 4: 6-7 says, "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding will guard your hearts and your minds in Jesus Christ."

So tonight, pray and go to sleep. God already has a solution to whatever is keeping you awake. I pray everyone sleeps well tonight.

To God be the glory forever and ever.

CODE PURPLE

Greetings Friends! Our winter has certainly arrived and with the frigid temperatures, our Code Purple Sussex County shelter here at Avenue UMC has served 36 men so far this season. We have averaged 12-14 recently and we have been blessed with the support of community members and our church family. You may notice, we have placed a chalkboard in the lobby to note specific needs, as we discover shortages in supplies throughout the week. We are so grateful for the rapid response to a previous request for jeans and sweat pants.

We also invite you to join us in fellowship any evening. 7:00 -8:30 is a great time to come and play games, share testimony, listen with an open heart to another man's story, and be a loving presence during this difficult time in our guests' journeys.

COMMUNITY

MILFORD COMMUNITY PANTRY: We are in need of cereal (not pre-sweetened please).
Thank You!
