From the desk of our Pastors . . .

Recently I came across a greeting card that said, “why did I ever give someone so much power to mess me up this bad?” It was in a rack of cards that all appeared to be related to broken hearts, forgiveness, and moving on.

It really got to me because I have allowed people over the years to do just that – mess me up. Family and friends have done things through the years that had devastated me but in the long-run, none of them turned into anything that affected my long-term happiness, success, or health. I was lucky in that regard. They were however, a waste of my mental energy, emotional wellbeing and personal time.

My biggest regret is how long I let them “mess me up.” I often wonder what I could have accomplished if I had taken the time and energy associated with the worry, stress and anxiety of those situations and used it for something positive.

It also makes me wonder why I am so capable of giving someone the power to hurt me, but I struggle with giving God the power to love and guide me. I’m guessing I am not the only one who feels that way.

In Isaiah 41: 13-14, we hear from God who tells us, “For I am the Lord, your God, who takes hold of your right hand and says to you, do not fear; I will help you. Do not be afraid for I myself will help you declares the Lord your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.”

God promises to help and yet we too often say no. People seek to “mess us up” and we let them. That has to change and it has to change now. Can we all work to rebuke those who seek to harm us and instead let God love us? How wonderful would it be to give God all the power to pick us up? (I know it will feel so much better.)

Let us strive now to give God the honor, the glory and submit to His almighty power forever and ever.

CODE PURPLE INFO & UPCOMING TRAINING!

We are building a team of volunteers to help serve our homeless guests for the 2018/2019 cold weather season! Please join us to learn more about Code Purple and how you can get involved. This vital resource is dependent on volunteerism as Code Purple Sussex County is 100% volunteer run. Most of our emergency winter sanctuaries are open each night from December 15th until March 15th. Volunteer spots include: intake, overnight, morning relief, clean-up crews, transportation, laundry and dinner service. (To Sign Up for dinner sponsorship and other volunteer opportunities, please use the link found on our website at codepurplesussexcounty.com Volunteers/Servants!). Last year we served 150 literally homeless neighbors at our shelters. We served the elderly, families, the infirm, those recently released from prison, and sometimes persons struggling with addiction or persons with mental health not being treated.

Each guest is uniquely homeless...each vulnerable...each one matters!

Code Purple opens "on call" once the weather dips down below 32°. We call these "bookends" and volunteers will sign up to volunteer if Code Purple is called. However, once December 15th arrives, we have 6 sanctuaries stay open regardless of the temperature until March 15th. Our Laurel sanctuary opens every night of January & February. It takes an average of 12 people per night at each site to effectively operate a Code Purple Sussex County Site (we have 11 total certified CPSC Sites). The other sites open as overflow.

That means we have a potential of 132 volunteer spots to fill each night just to provide basic coverage during the season!

Come be part of the solution and join our team!

A Study of the Book

“7: Staging Your Own Mutiny Against Excess”

This study is different from others that Avenue Church has undertaken. How? Because it will meet only once a month but will be seven months in duration. Hmmm...read on to learn more.

This book and workbook focus on seven areas of our lives and helps us give up our excesses in each area: Stress, media, possessions, food, waste, spending and clothes. It is a perfect study for both families and individuals. It is a real eye-opener for kids.

Each month, in whatever order you and/or your family chose, you will look at one category and decide how to “untangle the clutter in your life and discover how temporarily disengaging from excess can allow God’s heart to break through your stuff and open your eyes to the things that really matter.” The book and workbook will give you ideas and suggestions on what can be done in our lives to fight back against overindulgence, materialism, and greed. What a perfect way to get our hearts ready for Christmas and move into Lent. Introductions to the study will be held on:

September 16, 2018 1:00 PM
September 18, 2018 7:00 PM
September 20, 2018 11:00 AM

YOU ONLY NEED TO ATTEND ONE. If you can’t attend any of these and want to participate, call Wendy and she will sit down and go over the study at your convenience.

Pastor Wendy will be leading this study and is available to answer questions. As you ponder whether you will be interested in doing this study, here are some sample questions for two of the categories to consider.

Food:

- Does your lifestyle influence your food choices or do your food choices influence your lifestyle? Why?
- How could food become an idol in our lives that distracts us from God’s kingdom?
- What are some of the practical ways you can live out the words of Jesus found in Matthew 25: 35-40.

Clothing:

- Why do you think we spend so much time consumed with our clothes? (What do your children say about this one?)
- How might your clothes reflect your heart?
- Read Matthew 6: 28-30. How can Jesus’ words encourage you when it comes to your closet?

Each category has similar questions. This is not just a study of thought. There are meaningful actions to undertake as both individuals and families. So come find out about it!

Dover District Prayer Day

Date: September 22, 2018

Time: 9 am to 3 pm

Where: Asbury UMC, 200 Weiner Ave., Harrington, DE 19952

This daylong celebration will focus on the Love and Grace of God who abundantly and faithfully pours out His blessings upon us. We will enter into His courts with praise, worship, prayer and testimony as we are affirmed and strengthened in the Doctrine of Assurance. One of the characteristics of a mature Christian disciple and a healthy church is the confidence in the relationship we have with God and with one another because of the witness of the Holy Spirit.

Our morning worship will begin with communion as we lay aside all of the distractions of the world in order to fully enter into the Presence of God. Our message on the Doctrine of Assurance will be led by Pastor Larry Jameson, followed by testimonies of the miracles God has graciously bestowed upon our District. Following a delicious lunch, we will then encounter God through a means of prayer selected by each participant dependent upon personal need. The stations will focus on healing prayer needs, corporate community prayer, solitary prayer, anointing stations, and meditations.

Our day will close with the distribution of the Book of Psalms, the prayers of all of our churches in our District and The Call to Prayer throughout the Dover District.

In order that every preparation can be made to make your day of prayer a joyful and blessed experience, complete the registration form and submit to Cathy Myers at the Dover District Office no later than September 17, 2018. The cost is $7.00 and includes lunch.

Please join Sussex County Volunteer Delaware 50+ and the State Office of Volunteerism as we collect donated items for our deployed servicemen and women who are serving during the holidays.

Donations Accepted: September 11, 2018 – October 31, 2018
