

The Midweek

Wednesday, March 20, 2019

From the desk of our Pastors . . .

The massive floods in the Midwest. The mosque attacks in New Zealand. The plane crash in Ethiopia. What will it take to get some good news? Thanks be to God we are coming to the story of the resurrection when the news of our salvation is always the best news.

Until then, I would like to share with you the words of one of my fellow seminarians from Wesley Theological Seminary. To God be the glory.

*Consider and answer me, O Lord my God;
Light up my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death,
Lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed over him,"
Lest my foes rejoice because I am shaken.
Psalm 13:3 – 4*

*"What the world needs is more people who have come alive."
Howard Thurman*

"Today, as ever, the problems in our politics, in our country, in our world, in our church, seem so great as to be overwhelming. It may seem the best we can do is just keep up. Truly caring about any of it, much less all of it, is exhausting. It is just. Too. Much. Psalm 13 reminds us that there is another way—to come alive. Through God, who first gave us breath, life, and light in our eyes, who loved us enough to become flesh right before those eyes, we can come alive to those right in front of us! When the problems of the world seem too big, begin with one right in front of you. Begin by loving that one person, that one thing, just as God created you to love and created them to be loved. There is no other way to heal our broken world than to be healed ourselves and pass on that life we find so that others might be healed, as well, moving ever-outward. This Lent, as we contemplate the life, works, and death of Christ, may we find our own life in the creation right in front of us."

Although the Bible gives us insights into what Jesus was thinking between the time he entered into Jerusalem and the night he spent in the Garden of Gethsemane, we can't totally relate. But what if we look at the "ordinary" people who witnessed the Passion events...the women around Jesus and his disciples? Or the "bad" guys... Judas, Pilate, and Caiaphas? If we look closely at the people who were part of Jesus' life during the last days before the crucifixion—their relationships and roles in the story—how might that deepen our understanding of what happened? In Entering the Passion of Jesus, Amy-Jill Levine explores the biblical texts surrounding the Passion story to help us fill in the blanks.

Dear High School Senior,

Congratulations on making it to the end of your senior year! As you come to the home stretch of your high school education, the Avenue Church family celebrates all your accomplishments as you approach this important milestone.

As you probably know Avenue awards several scholarships each year. If you are receiving this letter you are eligible to apply. The enclosed letter describes the scholarships we award, as well as the specific qualifications for each one. You may apply for as many scholarships as you qualify for.

This year, we are not mailing the scholarship applications. Please e-mail Mrs. Kelly Hudson, Church Secretary, at churchoffice@avenueumc.com and let her know which applications you want. They can also be downloaded from the webpage. Then complete the applications on your computer and return them to Mrs. Hudson. Handwritten applications will not be accepted.

Please keep these two important dates in mind:

- ♦ April 26th at 3:00 p.m. is the deadline to return your applications to the Church Office.
- ♦ May 12th at 9:30 a.m. is when scholarships will be awarded, along with gifts and recognitions for all the Class of 2019. Please plan to join us.

Again, congratulations on all your achievements! We are very proud of you! If there is anything else we can do for you, or if you need letters of reference, please let any of the Pastors know. Please take a moment to let us know your plans for next year. We would like to stay in touch.

Wishing you God's peace,

Tom Pasmore
Pastor

Friends,

The Staff-Parish Relations Committee (SPRC) has been working diligently to fill the role created by Pastor Cliff's departure. We have been very fortunate to have a talented individual in Pastor Cliff who is able to fill both of the Pastor of Student Ministries and Praise Team Leader roles simultaneously. This may not be the case moving forward. To maximize the opportunity to find the right people for each these, we have elected to break the current role into the two jobs that you see listed in the next few pages. If you know of someone that you think would be a good fit for either job, please pass this information on to them and encourage them to apply. Resumes and cover letters can be sent to the SPRC care of the church office. If you have any questions, Greg Abbott, chair of SPRC, or I would be happy to answer them. Please pray for Avenue Church as we continue to transition, and God bless us all.

Peace,
Pastor Tom
